

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The children of this State represent the future of Nevada, and therefore their needs must be given the highest priority; and

WHEREAS, The State of Nevada is dedicated to ensuring the health, education, safety, and well-being of the children of this State; and

WHEREAS, It is important that all residents work to help children achieve their potential by recognizing and encouraging their individual talents and accomplishments; and

WHEREAS, During the month of September, all citizens of Nevada should unite in furthering the cause of hope for our children; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the fourth Monday in September be designated "Children's Day" in Nevada as a day to celebrate children, and reaffirm our commitment to their needs; and be it further

PROCLAIMED, That the State of Nevada hereby names September 26, 2011, as "Children's Day."

DATED this 18th day of April 2011.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Shirley A. Breedon". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned above a horizontal line.

Shirley A. Breedon
Nevada State Senator

