Call for Proposals for the 2022 NevAEYC Annual Early Childhood Conference

PROPOSALS ACCEPTED NOW THROUGH MARCH 4, 2022!

Eligibility Requirements to submit a proposal:

The Nevada Association for the Education of Young Children (NevAEYC) will be accepting proposals from:

1. Nevada Registry approved trainers with a trainer expiration date of April 24, 2022 or later.
2. Individuals (including those out of state) interested in presenting or co-presenting at the NevAEYC conference (only) and will not deliver training in Nevada at any other time throughout the year.

To be eligible for this trainer category, you must meet the following criteria:

- Have earned an Associate's degree or higher;
- Cannot be subject to Nevada Child Care Licensing regulations; and,
- Submit proposal topics related to your degree or employment.

Please note: Individuals interested in this trainer category must contact The Nevada Registry at <https://www.nevadaregistry.org/about/contact-us/> to become established as a conference only presenter. Select NevAEYC Conference Presenter for Reason of Inquiry.

How to Submit a Proposal:

Approved trainers can request the conference proposal form by visiting <https://ww2.nevadaregistry.org/userportal/requestproposal.aspx>. To assist you with preparing your proposal, please refer to the sample conference proposal for guidance.

- Proposals will be accepted through March 4, 2022
- Proposal acceptance notifications will be sent out, beginning March 21, 2022
- Submit proposals that align to one of nine conference tracks (see sample proposal form for a description of each track).

DID YOU KNOW.....

You can offer sessions in a language other than English? If you would like to offer sessions in another language, please indicate this in your proposal.

There is a special fee for conference presenters? For 2022, we will offer one free registration per approved proposal.

The conference has 9 different topic tracks! Please see the sample proposal form for a list and description.
