OPEN HOUSE

Nevada Strong Start Child Care Services Center Open House Event

The Child Care Services Center (CCSC), through funding from the division of Welfare and Supportive Services, American Recovery Plan Act (ARPA) is here to support the needs of Nevada's child care providers. Child care providers of all types now have one location to access resources, support and information needed to provide the best care to the families they serve. Join us to discover all that the CCSC has to offer you and our community!

We look forward to seeing you there!
